A PS NCO school is located at Kutna Hora (050/137) in a former monastery building.* One course ended in June 1951, and most of the enrollees were graduated as PS Cpls. A new course was supposed to start immediately, but it was postponed 14 days for unknown reasons.

* Comment. It is possible that this school trains radiomen and is subordinate to the II/5 Sig Bn. [redacted] the II/5 Sig Bn is stationed in Kutna Hora and is a part of the 5th Sig Regt. It is known that every PS Brig has a Sig Co, but up to now it has not been determined to which military unit radio operators are assigned for training. The 5th Sig Regt is directly under the GHQ of the Ministry of National Defense and therefore might be accredited to train PS units in radio. [redacted] radio stations exist at brigade and battalion level, and as soon as all PS units are provided with radio operators, radio stations are to be assigned to PS Cos in the entire zone along the south-west border of Czechoslovakia.
